ing to repairs going on in the building. WE hear that a letter has just been received from Sandakan from Captain Kennett of the Tarapaca, which left here for that port on the 20th July, stating that he had a very todious passage-ever 50 days-and that his 60 passengers got short of provisions when they were 35 days out. Beriberi broke out on board, and he landed five sailors, out of a crew of eight, and three passengers suffering from this disease.

On the case against J. G. Jesus, storekeeper in the employ of the Dock Company, who is charged with the theft of 66 tins of paint of the value of $128, coming before the Police Court again to-day, the accused, who was allowed out on a bail of $400, failed to put in his appearance. Mr Webber, solicitor, who gave a bond for him, however, appeared. Mr Wotton, who pro_ secuted on behalf of the Company, spoke strongly against a solicitor being security for a client, and asked that the bail be estreated and a warrant granted for the arrest of accused. Mr Pollock estreated the bail and granted the warrant. The case against the three shopkeepers who are charged with the same offence was adjourned for a week. The typhoon seems to have passed by Hongkong without striking us. We have Flower Parcels of 50 Packets, price, $10.00 not escaped, however, the dirty weather 5.00 that follows in the train of such disturbances. A strong gale blew all last night and during the greater part of to-day, and most of the vessels that had gone for shelter did not move out. Such ample warning was given for boats to take shelter that no damage of any consequence has to be reported. Dr Doberck writes this morning :- At 4.15 p.m. yesterday the following notice was issued. 'Typhoen S. of Hungkong,' and also directions to hoist the South Cone. Last night it blew a fresh E.N.E. gale, occasionally exceeding a strong gale in the squalls. The barometer continues rising, but the gale is scarcely moderating. The typhoon is moving Westward.' And again this afternoon he writes as follows :- Typhoon S.S.W. of Hongkong moving westward."

THE trial of the master of the Kut Fung

shop and his three shopmen, on a charge of conspiring to defraud the Straits Insurance Company by means of arson, was concluded to-day, when the jury, who have been hearing the case for six days, returned a unanimous verdict of 'guilty' against the prisoners. The result is only what must have been anticipated by most people who carefully followed the evidence in the case. As Mr Francis, Q.C., acknowledged to-day in summing-up for the prosecution, Mr Robinson, Counsel for the prisoners, made an able and, in some respects, an effective defence; but, in the face of the preponderance of testimony against the accused men no defence, however skilfully made, was likely to avail. The prisoners, on the whole, have perhaps reason to be thankful that the charge against them was not one of felony. but simply of misdeameanour. The minor charge was substituted for that which was brought against them at the Ma-4; Cyclops, Elektro, 7; Hector, Neckar, gistracy, in order that the master of Regal. 11; Galley of Lorne, Glenfinlas, the shop might not escape, which it was thought he had a reasonable chanceof doing had he been tried on evi-Glenfruin, 31; Glenariney, Sept. 4; dence referable only to himself. THE examinations at Nanking are over. We are informed that 27,312 students presented themselves, and of these eight died during the trying ordeal. The list of those who have been successful will be out about the and of this month. These examinations are good for steamer traffic on the Yangteze. On a recent trip from Chinkiang to Nanking the steamer Kiangyung had eleven hundred odd passengers, the largest number, we believe, ever carried by a Yangtsze boat.—Shanghai Courier.

WITH regard to the troubles at Pilam, Formosa, we have already related how the Governor had despatched General Li Punk'in with the force from T'ai-peh by steamer to the spot. The Fei-tsieh, the manof war steamer which took General Li to Pilam, having now returned to Tamsui, we have gathered the following particulars :-The force of several thousands of savages were dispersed by our big guns, but reunited at Ta-chwang. Here it was joined by the savages of the neighbouring savage settlement called Jen Wanz, who are of extreme ferocity. General Li was going to attack them on 31st August, and was confident of an easy victory. The savages were originally in league with Chinese colonists who had placed themselves in arm ed opposition to the collectors of the new land-tax, and it was said that they had killed two Deputies, Messrs. Liu and Kao. The fact of the matter is that Liu was really killed; and Kao got away from the enemies by whom he was surrounded, and escaped north by circuitous routes, making his appearance before the Governor on 25th August and tolling his story.—Shen Pao.

CHINESE NOTES.

The Shihpao says :- Now that Commissioner Detring has by order of the Viceroy established a school of science at Tientsin, it is high time that measures were taken to compile a Standard Dictionary of Chinese and English, fixing by authority the proper Chinese rendering of scientific and diplomatic terms, so as to obvinte the confusion and misunderstanding which has hitherto existed. Many have made dictionaries, but they frequently differ in their renderings. At Shanghai, Foochow, Nanking, Canton, and Tientsin, independent sets of scientific and technical terms have been adopted which often do not agree with each other. And in making the French and English Treatios there have been discrepancies between the European and Chinese versions. Such was the case even when distinguished Sinologista like Wade and Mayers made the Chefoo Convention. There is no place so well fitted for-undertaking such a work as Tientsin, where eminent scholars like Lo, Yen, and Tsung are collected. They might receive help by correspondence from scholars distinguished for Western science in other provinces. Thus, when the work was completed and received official sanction, it would be a standard for all scholars to follow. We venture to suggest that there is no time like the present for making such a Dictionary.

The same paper says :- The presence of foreigners in a settlement greatly interferes with the effectual carrying out of the Chinese method of praying for rain. Slaughter is prohibited in a native city, but it is only carried on more vigorously in the foreign settlement. So that of course it is a solomn farce and cannot possibly move Heaven to send rain. No wonder that the foreigners who do not believe in prayer for rain laugh at the whole thing. We have, however, the best reasons for believing prayer, (Here examples of effectual prayer by ancient worthies are quoted, including the case of Han Wan'king and the crocodiles). We cannot at the same time see the reasonablaness of forbidding the slaughter of pigs, sheep, ducks, and fowls, which are fed for no other purpose but to be eaten. We might just as well stop killing, and eating tigers, leopards, and wolves. It is different with horses and oxen which do us service in their life, and should have decent burial when they die. But, on the whole, a benevolent government of men consistently maintained is the best means of securing an-

As his Lordship would point out, the charge was that of conspiring to defraud the Straits Insurance Company by setting fire to this shop. No evidence was put before the jury or could be put before them to show that these men actually met together and arranged that this should be done, but there was evidence that they did certain things which had a certain unity among themselves, the tendency of all of which was to defraud the Straits Insurance Company if they succeed ed. Fusan, 19th Sept. I regret to report that our crop of rice and beans in the vicinity of Fusan must be considered lost. We have had no rain whatever for a considerable time. In other parts of the country the farmers are reported to be much better off. This is a hard case for our settlement, where rice and beans always used to form two staple articles of export. The following Japanese men-of-war called here on the 14th instant --Kaimon Kan, Namwa Kan, Tsukusi Kan, Fuso Kan, Minochi Kan. The Takachiho Kun arrived here on the 16th instant ; she is to join the flying squadron and to replace the Fuso Kan as flagship. While the fleet was here we enjoyed some splendid music, discoursed by the Admiral's excellent band, and on the whole, there was a jolly good time all round during the stay

The Japanese Ministers Ito and Saigo were on board the fleet, arriving from Nagasaki in the Takachiho Kan. The ships were in apple pie order, and their crews behaved exceedingly well while in port. The whole crowd left us on the 17th for Vindivostock via Gensan. Lately, some rice has had to be imported from Japan into the settlement, but we soon expect nutive cereals to drop in coastwise. That is all the news I can give you.—Shangha

Philip V., Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, being, as I am assured, of unsound health, but of sound memory, as I well remember me that five years ago I did give my vote for the despatching of old Canterbury, neither have I forgotten that I did see my King upon the scaffold; yet, as it is said that death doth even now pursue me, and, morever as it is yet further said and it is my practice to yield under coercion. A remarkable case is that of a house painter named Jeffries, who lived at Penshurst, in Kent. His business obliged him to expose himself a great deal to wind and weather, and he was seized with rheumatism, and his joints soon swelled up with dropsy, and were very stiff and painful. Nothing that the dectors could do seemed to reach the seat of the trouble. It so crippled him that he could do hardly any work, and for the whole of the winter of 1878 and '79, he had to give up and take to Hongkong & China Bakery Co., Ld. S his bed. Ho had been afflicted in this sorry way for three years, and was getting worn out and discouraged. Besides, he had spent over £13 for what he called 'doctor's stuff' without the least benefit. In the Spring he heard of what Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup has done for others and bought a 2s. 6d, bottle of me. In a few days he sent me word he was much better before he had finished the bottle. He then sent to me for a 4s. 6d. bottle, and as I was going that way I carried it down to him myself.
